Economist, Senior Analyst or Consultant

Finance & Business Valuation Practice Area

Anderson Economic Group, LLC is seeking an experienced and motivated individual to join our consulting practice as an economist, senior analyst or consultant in our East Lansing, Michigan office. We are seeking to fill this position by March 1, 2012.

Responsibilities

Upon joining the firm, the right candidate will:

- Collect, analyze, and manage data (including data from private and public sources, covering business, industry, economic, demographic, and government policy concepts);
- Use specialized mathematical software (such as MATLAB) to create custom-program routines to analyze risk, return, and value for a wide range of business investments and real options;
- Assist in the creation of visuals for inclusion in two forthcoming books;
- Write reports and research summaries, and prepare presentations for a variety of clients on topics related to valuation, damages, and business finance.

Preferred Qualifications

The position requires excellent research skills, analytic abilities, writing, and oral communication skills. Applicants will be expected to demonstrate a proven track record of applying these abilities with a high level of quality and accuracy. Applicants will also be expected to have an awareness of general business concepts (including basic managerial accounting concepts and an awareness of economic conditions). Knowledge of specific industries or policy areas would be helpful, but is not required. Graduate course work in economics, public policy, or a related field is preferred, as is experience in a professional office environment.

Proficiency with standard office software (particularly Excel) is required, as well as experience with analytical tools such as mathematical (e.g. Matlab) or statistical software (e.g. Stata), and professional layout or document software (e.g. Adobe Framemaker). Previous experience in one or more software environments is required. Knowledge of GIS software (e.g. ArcGIS) would also be helpful, but is not required.

Work Location and Compensation

The available position is in our East Lansing office, with infrequent travel between there and our Chicago office required. Compensation will be based on experience and skill. The AEG benefits package includes a competitive salary, bonus, and a range of benefits including medical insurance and a retirement plan. This position reports to the firm's CEO, who is also the author of the above-mentioned forthcoming publications.
